ORAL JUDGMENT

Learned advocates Mr. B.D. Karia and Mr. Deepak M Shah jointly state that the suit in question has been finally disposed of by the trial Court on 17.12.2003. They further state that the plaitniff-landlord has also preferred an appeal before the District Court, being Appeal No. 4 of 2004. They therefore submit that in view of the fact that the suit has been finally disposed of, both these Revision Applications have become infructuous and may be disposed of accordingly.

In view of the aforesaid statement of learned advocates, these Revision Applications are dismissed as having become infructuous. Rule in both the matters are discharged. No order as to costs.
